

Saturday, April 21, 2018

- 9:30 Doors open
- 10:00 Welcome and keynote: The Revolution Where You Live, Sarah van Gelder
- Lunch (food vendors available throughout the day)
- 1:00 Strengthening our local economy through community-sourced funding and co-ops, Deb Stinson & LION folks
- 3:00 Homes for all: how do we get there? Eric Johnson, moderator
- 5:30 Dinner / Artful Living: exploring the role of creativity in resilient communities, Sommer Carter & the Anacortes Music Project. Includes songwriting contest concert and other merriment!

Sunday, April 22, 2018

- 9:00 offsite: Forest Immersion Experience: Earth Day Hike, with Friends of the Forest naturalist Denise Crowe
- 9:30 Transit Shed opens only to 10:00 workshop participants
- 10:00 Regenerative Resistance: How to face the mess we're in without going crazy, Belinda Griswold
- 12:30 Transit Shed opens to all (food vendors open)
- 1:00 The Future Needs You: Citizen Science in a Rapidly Changing World, with Dr. Phoebe Barnard and representatives of local groups
- 3:00 Where Do We Go from Here? Winding up with Vicki Robin
Closing ceremony/Luminary Parade

Activities available throughout the weekend:

The Grove of Life, the Qube, the Walk of Why Not, art show, The Tempestry Project, book giveaway table, graffiti wall, food vendors, live music, and more!